Licensing Information

Two separate licenses are required, one for the right-to-use and one for the right to integrate:

1. "Right to Use" licensing for the square foot and/or segregated licensing of Marshall & Swift intellectual property
2. "Right to Integrate" fees, covering the automation, development and integration of Marshall & Swift intellectual property, which includes Developers' Kits, calculation engines, valuation methodologies and other proprietary information into CAMA or other systems or processes and includes Marshall & Swift technical integration support.

All customization (e.g., data or software development) by Marshall & Swift is scoped and licensed separately. Minimum total order is $1,500 per customer. Sales tax and shipping charges apply.

CAMA Resellers: please contact us about multi-year contracts or when bidding on projects. CAMA Certification is now available. Please see CAMA System Certification document for more information.

Government Users: we will work with you to accommodate budget and fiscal year constraints.

All pricing and licensing terms subject to change without notice. Discounts may apply for purchases of more than one category.

Pricing does not include OTC products (i.e. Residential Cost Handbook, Marshall Valuation Service, Residential Cost Explorer, Commercial Cost Explorer, Residential Estimator, Commercial Estimator) Please see OTC pricing sheet for more information.
